Perspectives on Social Inclusion for Persons with Intellectual Disabilities (PWID)

Captain Roger Loh Chin Chan President, SOSG

ABOUT THE MOVEMENT

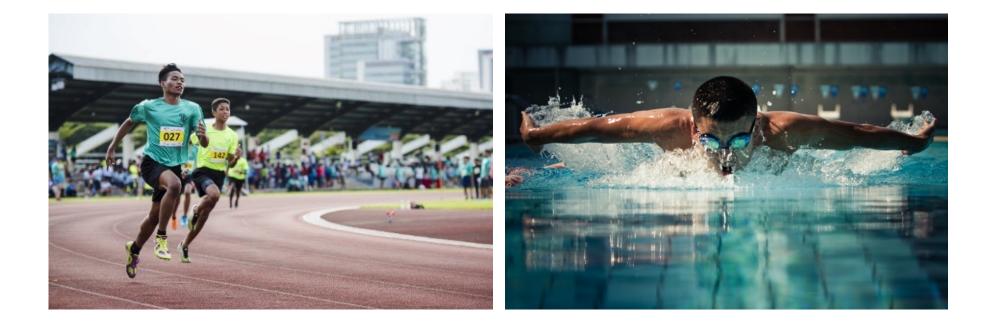

Special Olympics is a global movement of people creating a new world of inclusion and community, where every single person is accepted and welcomed, regardless of ability or disability.

We are helping to make the world a better, healthier and more joyful place—one athlete, one volunteer, one family member at a time.

FROM THE GET-GO

Promoting respect, inclusion and human dignity for people with intellectual disabilities through sports.

TOWARDS AN INCLUSIVE SOCIETY THROUGH SPORTS ----- Special Olympics

HEALTHIER, HAPPIER, STRONGER ATHLETES

Journey of discovering new strengths and abilities, skills and success.

As individuals – leading more meaningful lives

IT GOES BEYOND SPORTS

Unleashing leadership potential in people of all abilities.

Special Olympics' leadership work with athletes starts through sport—teaching life skills such as discipline and teamwork. This is built on through athlete leadership development, and opportunities in health, schools, youth programming and employment.

When nobody gets left behind, everybody moves forward.

CREATING A SUSTAINABLE ECOSYSTEM

Because inclusion matters.

Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much.

INCLUSION EFFORTS

Unified Sports

One such example : Young Athletes program

Including mainstream schools to be partners in Unified Sports. Planting the awareness seed from young. For they are the next generation of 'advocators' in our ecosystem.

TOWARDS AN INCLUSIVE SOCIETY THROUGH SPORTS ----- Special Olympics

INCLUSION EFFORTS

Inspired by a simple principle: training together and playing together is a quick path to friendship and understanding.

Play Inclusive

Singapore's biggest unified competition for athletes with intellectual disabilities and students from mainstream schools.
